A spacious, raised, ground floor apartment of circa 1472 sq ft in this converted period building that was a former school set in extensive grounds and with stunning views over the surrounding countryside.

The property has been lovingly looked after by the current owners with the main feature being a stunning drawing room with high ceiling, a dual aspect and feature fireplace. It further benefits from an attractive, restored ceiling rose and coving. The kitchen benefits from a number of integral appliances; there are two double bedrooms which includes a lovely principal with en suite shower room and there is a further family bathroom both of which have been well appointed. This excellent apartment has the added benefit of allocated parking space and a share of the freehold.

In all, the perfect property for someone wanting a stylish flat on one level, in this tucked away location off Fernden Lane, yet still only a couple of miles from Haslemere town.
