10 Saxon Meadow, Tangmere

A charming barn conversion in a delightful village setting.

- Bright dual-aspect open-plan sitting room
- Kitchen with vaulted beamed ceiling
- Two-bedrooms
- Principal bedroom enjoying attractive views over the meadow and surrounding countryside
- Positioned on the edge of the development
- Attractive communal courtyard-style gardens, professionally maintained
- Private garage plus additional visitor parking within the development
- Share of Freehold and Long lease
- Ideal lock-up-and-leave home, village residence or countryside retreat
- A charming barn conversion

Forming part of the idyllic Saxon Meadow development, a characterful collection of beautifully converted flint and brick agricultural barns, this delightful home enjoys an enviable position within the sought-after Sussex village of Tangmere.

Approached via the picturesque Church Lane, passing the historic St Andrew's Church, whose origins date back to the early 12th century, the development offers a peaceful semi-rural atmosphere whilst remaining conveniently connected to nearby amenities and transport links.

Occupying an attractive edge-of-development position, the property benefits from views over an adjoining meadow, currently being rewilded to encourage local wildlife, which is owned and maintained by the residents' management company. This unique setting creates a wonderful sense of space and tranquillity rarely found in modern developments.

The accommodation is both bright and welcoming. The front door opens into a dual-aspect open-plan sitting room and kitchen, where a vaulted beamed ceiling enhances the feeling of light, character and volume. An inner hallway leads to a ground-floor bedroom and modern shower room. Upstairs, the principal bedroom enjoys pleasant views towards the meadow and surrounding countryside beyond.

Outside, residents enjoy access to beautifully maintained communal courtyard-style gardens, providing an attractive contrast to the natural meadow landscape at the rear. The setting is particularly appealing for those who appreciate wildlife, open space and a strong sense of community.

Further benefits include a private garage and additional allocated visitor parking within the development.
