Maresfield, Uckfield

Parklands is pleasantly positioned in this highly sought after village forming part of the conservation area. Maresfield offers a keen sense of community spirit and has several public facilities including a highly regarded village primary school, a village store, a village hall, a picturesque church, and the Chequers Inn. There are fine rural walks available nearby whilst a comprehensive range of shopping and leisure facilities can be found nearby in Uckfield, which offers numerous bars/restaurants, individual shops, a public library, railway station, and several supermarkets. Additional railway services can be found at nearby Buxted offering services to London in just over an hour, whilst the A272 provides swift vehicular access to Haywards Heath and a faster commuting service to London (London to Victoria in approx. 47 minutes). The coastal resorts of Eastbourne and Brighton are also easily accessible, as is the breath taking 6,500 acre Ashdown Forest, with its vast scenic walks and bridle paths, (the inspiration behind A.A Milne's Winnie the Pooh books.)
