Mossghyll Rowgate

Kirkby Stephen

Dating from 1938, as confirmed by the original date stone, this delightful three-bedroom mid-terraced home occupies a desirable position within one of Kirkby Stephen's established residential areas. Having been a much-loved and well-maintained home for many years, the property now presents an excellent opportunity for new owners to update and personalise to their own tastes, creating a wonderful home for years to come.

The accommodation begins with a welcoming entrance hall, providing access to the principal reception rooms and staircase to the first floor. Positioned to the front aspect, the living room enjoys a charming box bay window that floods the room with natural light, whilst an electric fire set within a wooden surround provides a focal point. A characteristic 1930s framed double doorway leads seamlessly through to the dining room, enhancing the sense of space and connectivity between the reception areas.

The dining room is a generous and versatile room, ideal for both everyday family life and entertaining. Benefitting from a useful fitted cupboard and an excellent understairs storage cupboard, the room also provides access to the kitchen.

Forming part of a later extension, the kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units and offers space for a freestanding cooker, washing machine and fridge freezer. A stainless steel sink is positioned beneath the rear-facing window, enjoying views over the delightful garden, whilst a wall-mounted boiler and external door complete this practical space.

To the first floor, the landing provides access to all three bedrooms, the bathroom and additional storage. A particularly useful cupboard extends over part of the passageway between the property and the neighbouring residence, complemented by a separate linen cupboard and loft access.

The bathroom is positioned to the rear and is fitted with a suite comprising bath, wash hand basin and WC. There are three bedrooms in total, including two comfortable double bedrooms situated to the front and rear aspects respectively, together with a well-proportioned single bedroom which partially extends over the passageway below.

Externally, the property continues to impress. The established rear garden is a true delight, thoughtfully planted with an array of mature flowers, shrubs and trees, creating a colourful and peaceful setting to relax, garden and enjoy throughout the seasons. A pathway meanders through the garden, leading to the detached single garage, which benefits from a manual up-and-over door together with a pedestrian access door.

A gate at the rear of the garden provides access to the driveway serving the garage, which is shared for access purposes and should be kept clear for neighbouring properties. Please note: the driveway is NOT under the ownership of Mossghyll.

Offering an abundance of potential, character and charm, this attractive home presents a wonderful opportunity to acquire a well-cared-for property in a sought-after location, ready for its next chapter and new custodians to make it their own.
