Flat 3

The Old Red Lion, Great Missenden

An immaculately presented, one bedroom, first floor apartment in a development of 9 similar properties converted from a former pub in central Great Missenden conservation area. No Onward Chain

Access to the flat is through a secure communal entrance hall and via stairs to the first floor. The entrance hall, living room and bedroom are fitted with continuous oak flooring.

The triple-aspect living room is flooded with light from the sash window to the front, eye level side window and patio doors to the balcony. The quality, integrated, kitchen has modern appliances and a range of floor and wall mounted units. Ample space remains for a separate dining table and 'zoned' living area.

The quality fitments are repeated in the fully tiled, bathroom comprising of a walk-in-shower, vanity basin, concealed cistern W.C. and heated chrome towel rail. There is a generous, front-aspect, double bedroom fitted with a modern, double-glazed, sash window and view of the picturesque High Street. Some original beams are exposed in a feature wall to add to the historic charm.

Unusually for a village centre apartment, there is both a balcony and space in a secure car park to the rear. The balcony is accessed via patio doors from the living area, providing a private area for al-fresco dining and entertaining. The balcony overlooks the historic roof tops and is south facing.
