Guide Price £950,000

Hop Gardens Newells Lane

Lower Beeding, Horsham

A charming four-bedroom, three-bathroom farmhouse-style property, situated in a semi-rural position on the south-eastern fringes of Horsham, occupying a plot totalling approximately 7.4 acres. Hop Gardens is ideally located for access to Horsham town centre, with its mainline railway station and local amenities, as well as open countryside offering excellent hacking routes for the equestrian sector. The area is also well served by a selection of highly regarded local state and private schools, commuter routes to the Capital and well regarded local pubs and restaurants.

The property offers versatile living and bedroom accommodation. To the ground floor, a welcoming reception hallway leads to a fabulous dining room, centred around a fireplace, making it an ideal space for entertaining guests and family, particularly during the winter months. Further living space includes a well-proportioned sitting room enjoying an aspect to the front of the property and also benefitting from a fireplace. To the rear of the house is an impressive family room featuring double doors opening directly onto the rear garden terrace, a polished strip wood floor throughout, and a brick-built open fireplace. Completing the ground floor accommodation is a generous kitchen/breakfast room, a separate utility room, a study, and a downstairs shower room.

To the first floor, the principal bedroom suite is positioned over the family room and enjoys views over the rear gardens and adjoining pasture land. It benefits from fitted wardrobe space and an en suite bathroom. There is also a second guest bedroom suite with a spacious en suite bathroom. Two further
