Location

Kentish Mansions occupies one of Tunbridge Wells' most iconic and enviable positions, beautifully placed between the common and the very heart of the town. The beautiful common sits just across the London Road, whilst the historic Pantiles – with its independent delis, character shops, cafés and restaurants – is around a minute's walk in one direction and the High Street in the other. Chapel Place and Bedford Terrace lie directly beyond the building's rear entrance, and the mainline station, offering regular services into London, is within a short, level walk, making this a wonderful setting in which to enjoy all the joys of town, centre living from a peaceful and elevated position.
