Ewhurst is a lovely, semi-rural village nestled at the base of the beautiful Surrey Hills just a few miles north east of Cranleigh. Its population of 2,500 have access to an array of amenities including a well-run general store, medieval church, recently updated pub, village club and a variety of independent retailers including a hairdresser, beauty shop and vet practice. The village has a play group, pre-school and infant school as well as a range of private and state schools in nearby villages. These include Duke of Kent School in Peaslake, Hurtwood House School, Cranleigh School and Glebelands High. It has a range of sports and social clubs with local playing fields and is generally a wonderful area for pursuing outdoor activities such as walking, horse riding and mountain biking. Nearby (just 4.5 miles) Ockley Train Station provides convenient access up to London Victoria. Other mainline stations can be found in Guildford, Dorking or Horsham.
